

THE AMERICAN PAVILION KITCHEN

DISCOVER A NEW LEVEL AT FESTIVAL DE CANNES

For anyone starting a career in the culinary, event management, or hospitality fields, there's no better opportunity than The American Pavilion's Worldwide Student Program. With the French Riviera and Cote d'Azur for a backdrop, The American Pavilion is the de facto communications and hospitality hub for thousands of Americans attending the world's largest and most glamorous annual media event.

Each year, the Cannes International Film Festival provides a select, elite group of students with a front-row seat to the cultural experience of a lifetime. Hospitality and Event students help execute VIP events and parties under the stewardship of our Events Director, while our exclusive Culinary Program is a hands-on approach to effectively presenting unique and stylish menu items to hundreds of daily visitors.
